Meal Plan Enrollment
The Cornell Dining Contract is a legally binding contract and cannot be altered or modified without the prior consent of Cornell Dining. The Cornell Dining Contract is valid for the period May 21, 2012 through August 16, 2012, and becomes binding when you sign the Dining Enrollment Form. See Meal Program Schedule and Meal Plan Options below for specific time periods and details related to each plan. This Cornell Dining Contract is drawn with due regard to New York State law, and your signature on the Dining Enrollment Form indicates acceptance of the obligations under New York State law.

Administrative Fee. A nonrefundable $15 administrative fee is charged once each summer period.

Your plan membership card and privileges are non-refundable and nontransferable; you cannot use your plan to obtain food or drink for others. No credits will be given for missed meals. Account balances cannot be applied to/from other semesters or to/from other accounts.

Execution of the Cornell Dining Contract is not a commitment of admission to or continued enrollment in Cornell University.

Scheduling. Campus Life reserves the right to modify dining program hours of operation as demand dictates. Campus Life will make every reasonable effort to continue dining services during periods of weather emergency, power shortages, union actions, and similar circumstances.

Payment. You are required to pay for the meal plan for which you are enrolled. Payment may be made by check (payable to Cornell University), major credit card, or cash.

Use of the Identification Card. Your plan membership card is your Cornell photo ID card validated for the plan in which you are enrolled. To enter a dining unit, you must let the doorchecker mechanically scan your ID card. One meal will be deducted from your plan’s meal balance upon each entry into a dining room.

Any meal plan member who cannot present a valid card, for whatever reason, will be denied entrance. Campus Life reserves the right to have an employee inspect ID cards at any time and to request other appropriate identification.

Lost Cards. If you lose your Cornell ID card, you must report the loss immediately to the Office of the University Registrar. To protect your membership in meal debit, and laundry plans, you can flag your card online as lost at dining.cornell.edu. You can continue to use your meal or debit plan by reporting the loss of your ID card to the Campus Life employee who checks cards as you enter a dining unit. If you need temporary access to your meal plan, visit any Cornell Dining location or the Housing and Dining Contracts Office to request a lost card voucher. You may use this voucher to charge meals and dining purchases to your account. A one-time charge of $5.00 will be billed to your bursar account for use of a lost card voucher. Vouchers are valid for three days from the time of issue.

Contract Termination. Your contract may be terminated due to violation of these Terms and Conditions or disciplinary action by Campus Life and/or Cornell University in accordance with University policy and the Campus Code of Conduct during the summer period. You will receive no refund for any meal plan charges that have been billed or are scheduled to be billed for the period.

Meal plan or debit meal plan members apprehended for theft of food or property, allowing another person to use their meal card, or any other attempts to defraud may be fined and/or removed from the dining program if found guilty by Cornell University’s judicial system. Refunds will not be given for such mandatory terminations.

Penalties assessed for breach of contract are independent of those that may be imposed by the Office of the Judicial Administrator.

Conditions of Meal Plan Participation
Servings Policy. The meal plan program features unlimited servings of all meals eaten in the designated All You Care to Eat dining rooms. It is your responsibility to take only what you can reasonably eat at each meal (All You Care to Eat policy). Campus Life reserves the right to limit the number of servings at special-event meals. Food is intended to be consumed on the premises. In the residential meal plan dining rooms, the food you select must be eaten in the dining room. In order to assist in keeping food costs low, you cannot take food out of the dining hall after each meal except one piece of fruit, one cookie, or one ice cream item. Campus Life reserves the right to inspect any packages, coats, bags, purses, et cetera, brought into dining rooms. All inspections will be done in a reasonable manner (as determined by Campus Life) and in compliance with all applicable Cornell policies.

Other Restrictions
1. Smoking is not permitted in Cornell University dining units.
2. Alcoholic beverages cannot be brought into a dining unit.
3. Participants are responsible for returning their own dishes and trays to the designated return area.
4. Shirts and shoes are required in all dining units.
5. Use of in-line skates (e.g., Rollerblades) is not permitted in dining units.
6. No animals except service dogs are allowed in dining units.
7. Campus Life is not responsible for personal belongings brought into or left in dining units.
8. Photographic equipment cannot be used in a dining unit unless authorized in advance by the dining unit manager.
