Housing Lottery & Room Selection for 2014-2015 Housing

Housing Lottery Sign-Up: January 22 - February 23, 2014

If you think you might be interested in living in the West Campus House System, an upperlevel Residence Hall, a Program House, or a university-owned Co-op, sign up for the Housing Lottery (housing.cornell.edu) any time between January 22 and February 23 to get your randomly generated General Room Selection timeslot.

General Room Selection: March 10-14, 2014

If you want to live in the West Campus House System or an upperlevel Residence Hall, sign in to the housing portal (housing.cornell.edu) during your timeslot to choose your room. See information about Program Houses, university Co-ops, and Continued Occupancy on pages 3-4 (these options still require signing up for the Housing Lottery, above). The Language House has a separate application process; see page 4 for more information.

You must be a full-time, registered student to participate in Housing Lottery & Room Selection.

Frequently Asked Questions

What is the Housing Lottery?
The Housing Lottery is a random computer-generated drawing system that gives you a timeslot to participate in General Room Selection. Signing up for the lottery does not commit you to a contract or a room; it only allows you to participate in Room Selection. If you want to live in on-campus housing next year – or are unsure of your plans but want to leave that option open for yourself – sign up for the Housing Lottery by visiting housing.cornell.edu any time between 9:00am on January 22 and 11:59pm on February 23.

What is General Room Selection?
General Room Selection (March 10-14) is the online process through which current undergraduate students may select a room – and their roommates/blockmates (if applicable) – in a West Campus House or an upperlevel Residence Hall for the next academic year. (See information about Program Houses, the Language House, Co-ops, and Continued Occupancy on pages 3-4.) Students may only participate in Room Selection if they have received a timeslot through the Housing Lottery.

Am I guaranteed on-campus housing for next year?
If you are a rising sophomore (current first-year student), you are GUARANTEED on-campus housing as long as you participate in Housing Lottery & Room Selection. Rising juniors and rising seniors are not guaranteed on-campus housing (see more information on page 4).

Which housing options are available during General Room Selection?
During General Room Selection, you may select a room – if spaces are still available during your timeslot – in one of the West Campus Houses (Cook House, which includes the main building plus four Gothic buildings; Becker House; Rose House, which includes the main building plus four Gothic buildings; Bethe House, which includes the main building plus one Gothic building; or Kee ton House) or in an upperlevel Residence Hall (Cascadilla, 112 Edgemoror, 122 McGraw Place, Sheldon Court, or Schuyler House). Some Program Houses may also have spaces available during Room Selection, although most spaces will already be reserved through the Program House application and room selection process (see pages 3-4).

How can I find out more about my housing options?
Start by visiting housing.cornell.edu, and click on “Live on Campus” and then on “Where to Live.” Tour the West Campus Houses and upperlevel Residence Halls during the Housing Expo (February 1), learn about the themed Residence Halls during Program House Days (January 22 - February 2), and visit the Co-ops during Co-op Mosey (February 2).

When will my Room Selection timeslot be?
When you sign up for the Housing Lottery, you will receive a 20-minute timeslot during one of the following periods:

- On-campus rising sophomores: Monday, March 10, 5:00-11:00pm & Tuesday, March 11, 5:00-11:00pm
- On-campus rising juniors: Wednesday, March 12, 5:00-10:00pm
- On-campus rising seniors: Thursday, March 13, 5:00-9:00pm
- Students living off campus: Friday, March 14, 5:00-6:00pm

The university-owned Cooperative Houses (“Co-ops”) are considered on-campus housing. Fraternities and sororities are considered off-campus housing.

What happens during my Room Selection timeslot?
At the beginning of your 20-minute timeslot, you will go to housing.cornell.edu to sign in to the housing portal and pick your room. If you are “pulling in” friends to share a room or block rooms together (see “How do I live with my friends?” below), you will also assign your friends to beds/rooms. When finished, you will be asked to electronically accept the housing Terms and Conditions and sign your housing contract. If you are being “pulled in” by a friend during their timeslot (see below), simply do nothing during your timeslot. You will instead receive an email prompting you to sign your housing contract online. Detailed step-by-step General Room Selection instructions will be sent to you by email and will be put in your campus mailbox in January. Please note that all signed housing contracts are legally binding.

How much time do I have to choose a room and sign my housing contract?
You may sign in to the housing portal as soon as your 20-minute timeslot begins, or any time afterwards until General Room Selection ends (Friday, March 14 at 6:00pm). There is no time limit; you have until the end of Room Selection to choose your room.

How do I live with my friends?
“Blocking” allows you to live with one to four of your friends, for a total group of up to five students, by sharing a room with them or reserving adjacent rooms (see more information on page 4).
You should start by signing up for the Housing Lottery (January 22 - February 23) so your information is in our system, although the actual application and selection process for Program Houses is handled individually through each house. Next, submit a written application directly to the house(s) in which you have interest by February 3 (applications can be found at programhouses.campuslife.cornell.edu). If you are offered a spot in a Program House and choose to accept the offer, you will select your room and sign your housing contract during Program House Room Selection (February 26-27), and will not need to take part in the General Room Selection process. Some Program Houses may still have rooms available after Program House Room Selection; these rooms will be made available through General Room Selection, March 10-14. To learn more about the themed Residence Halls, attend any of the events planned for “Program House Days,” January 22 – February 2. Details will be posted at programhouses.campuslife.cornell.edu.

I’m interested in living in the Language House. How do I apply? Applications for residency are due on December 1, 2013. Residency offers are made by the Language House community, and take place in mid-February, before General Room Selection. Visit alicecookhouse.cornell.edu/language-house-apply.cfm for details. Some students sign up for the Housing Lottery in addition to applying to live in the Language House to give themselves more options.

I’m interested in living in a university-owned Co-op. How do I apply? First, sign up for Housing Lottery (January 22 - February 23) so your information is in our system, and because later in the process you’ll sign your Co-op housing contract online. The actual application and selection process for the Co-ops is handled individually through each house. To apply to a Co-op (or Co-ops), please contact the house(s) in which you have interest. Contact information can be found at cooperatives.campuslife.cornell.edu. To learn more about the Co-ops, take part in “Co-op Mosey,” a day of open houses on Sunday, February 2. Details will be posted at cooperatives.campuslife.cornell.edu.

I’m an upperlevel student living in one of the Collegeloft area Residence Halls or in one of the West Campus Houses. Can I stay where I am next year? The West Campus Houses: Cascadilla, 112 Edgemoor, 122 McGraw Place, Sheraton Court, and Schuyler House will hold their own In-House / In-Hall Lottery processes in February to allow a percentage of current residents to continue their occupancy for 2014-2015. Details about your community’s Continued Occupancy (C/O) process are available from your RA, RHD, or House leadership.

I’m a rising junior or rising senior. What are my chances of securing on-campus housing for 2014-2015? If you want to live on campus next year, it is highly recommended that you participate in your current community’s In-Hall or In-House Lottery for Continued Occupancy (see previous question), or apply to live in a Program House or a Co-op (see questions at the top of this page). If you participate in the General Room Selection process, it is likely that most – and possibly all – on-campus housing options will already be filled by the time you go to select a room. If no beds are available during your Room Selection timeslot, you can be placed on the housing wait list and we may be able to make you a housing offer, although we cannot guarantee it.

May I live with someone of a different gender? Students participating in the General Room Selection process may not share a room or a suite with someone of a different gender, but may block with someone of a different gender in rooms that are next to each other or on the same hall. Students may, however, select gender-inclusive housing (to live with whomever they choose, regardless of biological sex, gender, or gender identity) through the following application processes: (1) the Program House application and room selection process; (2) the Language House application process; (3) the Co-op application process; and (4) the Continued Occupancy processes available through the West Campus Houses, upperlevel Residence Halls, and Program Houses. Please see below and page 4 for more details about these processes.

What if I’m not planning to live with a friend, or block with a group? You may either choose a single (if any are still available during your timeslot), choose a free bed in a partially occupied room, or choose a bed in an empty room (understanding that other students can select any remaining beds in your room).

I’m interested in living in the West Campus House System. What are my chances of securing a room in one of the Houses? There are 1,786 beds in the House System: 1,244 in the main buildings, and 542 in the West Campus Houses, upperlevel Residence Halls, and Program Houses. Students may, however, select gender-inclusive housing (to live with whomever they choose, regardless of biological sex, gender, or gender identity) through the following application processes: (1) the Program House application and room selection process; (2) the Language House application process; (3) the Co-op application process; and (4) the Continued Occupancy processes available through the West Campus Houses, upperlevel Residence Halls, and Program Houses. Students who live off campus receive timeslots on the last day of General Room Selection, and may pull in anyone they choose. All students must have a Room Selection timeslot.
