Join us for the Annual Latino Unity Dinner celebrating
The Latino Living Center’s 20th Anniversary

Friday, October 18, 2013
5:30pm Cocktail Hour, followed by Dinner at 6:45pm
Willard Straight Hall Memorial Room
Open to the Cornell Community

Tickets are free, but limited - Please stop by the Latino Studies Program Office at 435 Rockefeller Hall, 9:00am-5:00pm, Monday-Friday

Keynote Speaker:
Adrienne Martinez
ILR ’01, MBA ’08

“Ayer, Hoy, Mañana, y Por Siempre”

Students demonstrate after a Latino art exhibit on the Arts
Quad was vandalized
(November 1993).

The Day Hall Takeover, which led to the establishment of the Latino Living Center
(November 1993).

Opened in 1994, the Latino Living Center hosts a Welcome Barbeque (pictured above) at the start of each fall semester, and programs and events throughout the year.

Funded by the Latino Studies Program, with support from the Center for Intercultural Dialogue, Campus Life Marketing and Communications, Student Staff Funding Board, Diversity Alumni Programs, Cornell Latino Alumni Association, Latino Living Center, and La Asociación Latina.

For more information, please contact latino_studies@cornell.edu.